SECTION 3. Number and Qualifications. The authorized number of Directors of the Corporation shall be thirteen. The number of Directors may be changed by amendment of this Bylaw, or by repeal of this Bylaw and adoption of a new Bylaw, as provided in these Bylaws. A Director need not be a resident or citizen of California or of the United States, nor is membership in any other organization or group a disqualifier from serving as a Director; provided, however, that no person shall be elected, or shall remain, a Director, except a person who (a) holds current membership in the Fellowship of Narcotics Anonymous and (b) is in recovery from any use of mind or mood altering chemical, as commonly described as "using" by the Fellowship of Narcotics Anonymous, for a minimum of seven years clean time. No reduction of the authorized number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any Director before that Director's term of service on the Board expires.

SECTION 4. Election, Vacancies.

(a) Vacancies on the Board of Directors shall exist (1) on the death, resignation, or removal of any Director, and (2) whenever the number of authorized Directors is increased. The Board of Directors may declare vacant the office of a Director who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of court, or convicted of a felony, or been found by a final order or judgment of any court to have breached any duty under Section 5230 et seq. of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law. Any Director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the Chairperson of the Board, the President, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. No Director may resign if the Corporation would then be left without a duly elected Director or Directors in charge of its affairs, except upon notice to the Attorney General. Vacancies on the Board may be filled by election in accordance with the provisions of Sections 4(b) and (c) of this Article IV of these Bylaws, by majority vote of the Board of Directors then serving on the Board, whether or not less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining Director from the nominations submitted to the Board by the RSC pursuant to Section 4(b) or 4(c) of this Article IV of these Bylaws.

(b). Eight of the thirteen vacant or expiring Board of Directors seats shall be designated as “pool seats” and shall be filled by majority vote of the existing or remaining Board at the annual meeting of such Board, or such earlier regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors, in the manner set forth in these Bylaws. Pool seat Directors shall serve for four-year terms or for the unexpired portion of a vacant pool seat. In order to conform with the goals and interests of the RSC, and to form a closer working relationship with the RSC, nominations for vacant pool Board of Directors seats shall be solicited from the RSC, and Directors shall be nominated and elected, in the following manner:

1. When there is one or more pool seat vacancy on the Board, the existing or remaining Board shall notify the RSC in writing of the number of Board of Director seats which have become vacant and which will become vacant by the next annual meeting of the Board by virtue of expiration of the term of office for certain outgoing Directors. Such notification shall occur not less than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the date of the election which will fill such vacancies and 120 calendar days prior to the date of any meeting of the Board at which any pool seat is expiring. The Board may, along with such request, provide written notification to the RSC of the Board’s recommendations for RSC nominations, which may be made by any Director but shall be accompanied by an indication as to the number of current or remaining Directors requesting the nomination of each individual candidate.
2. The RSC will then, at its option, and not later than thirty (30) calendar days prior the Corporation’s meeting of the Board of Directors at which one or more pool seat Directors will be seated, consider the requests for nominations and submit to the existing or remaining Board in writing, nominations for election to the Board, consisting of at least one nomination per Director to be elected. The RSC’s nominations shall be made by action of its board of directors at a meeting at which a quorum is present, in accordance with the RSC’s bylaws. The RSC’s nominations may consist entirely, partly, or not at all of the candidates requested by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
3. Upon timely receipt, and if applicable upon the expiration of the outgoing Director’s term, the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall by action of the Board at its next meeting in the case of a vacancy or at its annual meeting in the case of a expiring term, nominate all of the RSC’s candidates for election to the Board of Directors; provided, however, that the Board need not nominate for election any candidate proposed by the RSC who (a) was not timely nominated; (b) does not meet the qualification requirements of Section 3 of this Article IV of these Bylaws; or (c) is otherwise not appropriate for nomination, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors acting as a whole. The Board may, in accordance with these Bylaws, nominate or re-nominate any pool seat nominee designated by the RSC and approved by the Board of Directors of the Corporation at any time within the next 365 calendar days following the date of the nomination of a pool seat nominee by the RSC.

4. In the event the RSC ceases to exist or operate, or fails to act timely to requests for nominations, or fails to nominate a sufficient number of candidates, then any current or remaining Director, including an outgoing Director, of the Corporation may nominate one candidate for election each. Such nomination shall be in addition to any candidates nominated by the RSC in accordance with subsection (b)(3) of this Section 4 of Article IV of these Bylaws. Subject to subsections (b)(5) and (e) of this Section 4 of Article IV of these Bylaws, below, a Director may nominate himself or herself for re-election.
 5. The nominations timely received from the RSC and approved for nomination by the Board of Directors, and any other candidates nominated by individual Directors, in accordance with subsection (b)(4) of this Section 4 of Article IV of these Bylaws shall constitute the candidates for election to the Board of Directors.
 6. Subject to subsection (d) of this Section 4 of Article IV of these Bylaws, below, the candidate receiving the highest number of valid votes shall take the first available Board of Directors seat, and so on, until all Director seats have been filled.
- (c). Five of the thirteen vacant or expiring Board of Directors seats shall be designated as “direct elects” and shall be specifically reserved for election by the RSC, for two-year terms or for the unexpired portion of a vacant direct elect seat, to be filled as follows:
1. When there is one or more direct elect vacancy on the Board, the existing or remaining Board shall notify the RSC in writing of the number of direct elect Board of Director seats which have become vacant and which will become vacant by the next annual meeting of the Board by virtue of expiration of the term of office for certain outgoing Directors. Such notification shall occur not less than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the date of the election which will fill such vacancies and 120 calendar days prior to the date of any meeting of the Board at which any direct elect seat is expiring.
 2. The RSC will then, and not later than thirty (30) calendar days prior the Corporation’s meeting of the Board of Directors at which one or more direct elect Directors will be seated, submit to the existing or remaining Board in writing, its selections for election to the Board, consisting of one selection per direct elect Director to be elected. The RSC's nominations shall be made by action of its board of directors at a meeting at which a quorum is present, in accordance with the RSC's bylaws.

3. Upon timely receipt, and if applicable upon the expiration of the outgoing Director's term, the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall by action of the Board at its next meeting in the case of a vacancy or at its annual meeting in the case of a expiring term, seat all of the RSC's candidates for election to the Board of Directors; provided, however, that the Board need not seat any candidate proposed by the RSC who (a) was not timely nominated; (b) does not meet the qualification requirements of Section 3 of this Article IV of these Bylaws; or (c) is otherwise not appropriate for nomination, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors acting as a whole.
4. In the event the RSC ceases to exist or operate, or fails to act timely to requests for direct elect selections, or fails to select a sufficient number of candidates, then any current or remaining Director, including an outgoing Director, of the Corporation may nominate one candidate for election each.
5. The selections timely received from the RSC and approved for nomination by the Board of Directors, and any other candidates nominated by individual Directors, in accordance with subsection (c)(4) of this Section 4 of Article IV of these Bylaws shall constitute the candidates for election to the Board of Directors.
6. Subject to subsection (d) of this Section 4 of Article IV of these Bylaws, below, the candidate receiving the highest number of valid votes shall take the first available Board of Directors seat, and so on, until all Director seats have been filled; provided, however, that no candidate nominated in the manner described in subsection (c)(4) of this Section 4 of Article IV of these Bylaws shall be seated unless and until all candidates selected pursuant to subsections (c)(1 - 3) of this Section 4 of Article IV of these Bylaws.

(d). No more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the persons serving on the Board may be interested persons. An interested person is (i) any person compensated by the Corporation for services rendered to it within the previous twelve months, whether as a full-time or part-time employee, independent contractor, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a Director for services as a director, and (ii) any brother, sister, ancestor, descendent, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, or father-in-law of each such person. However, any violation of the provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any transaction entered into by the Corporation.

(e). A Director may serve as a pool and/or direct elect Director up to three (3) consecutive terms, provided (i) that such Director continues to meet the qualifications required by Section 3 of this Article IV of these Bylaws and (ii) that the total consecutive years of service as a Director shall not exceed eight (8) years.

SECTION 5. Term. The term of each of each pool seat Director shall be four years from the date of his or her election to the Board (or such shorter term as was available due to a vacancy on the Board); provided, however, that the term of two (2) of the initial Directors shall be for only one year, so that the Board of Directors shall have staggered elections. The term of each of each direct elect seat Director shall be two years from the date of his or her election to the Board (or such shorter term as was available due to a vacancy on the Board); provided, however, that the term of the initial direct elect Directors shall run to the next annual meeting of the Corporation, so as to ensure that such seats thereafter always expire at the annual meeting of the Corporation.

SECTION 6. Removal. (a). The Board may declare vacant the seat on the Board of any Director who has been:

1. Declared of unsound mind by a final order of a court;
2. Convicted of a felony while serving as a Director;
3. Found by a final order or judgment of any court to have breached statutory duties relating to a director's standard of conduct under the California Nonprofit Corporation Law;
4. Found, after investigation by the Board, in accordance with the principles of Narcotics Anonymous, to have been "using" any mind or mood altering chemical as commonly described by Narcotics Anonymous; or
5. Found by the Board to have failed to attend or participate in any other manner as provided for herein, two or more consecutive duly called meetings of the Board of Directors in any twelve-month period, or three meetings in total during such twelve-month period of the Board.

(b). No Director shall be removed without cause.

(c). The vote necessary to remove any Director for any of the causes specified in Section 6(a) of Article IV of these Bylaws shall be a majority of the other Directors present at a duly called meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present or in the alternative such removal may be accomplished by unanimous written consent of the other Directors without a meeting.

(d). Any action challenging the validity of any removal of a Director must be commenced within six months after the removal. After the six-month period, the removal is conclusively deemed valid, in the absence of proof of actual fraud.

SECTION 7. Regular Meetings. A regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without notice other than this Bylaw at the principal office of the Corporation sixty (60) calendar days following the annual meeting of the RSC or at such other place and time as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Board may also provide, by resolution, the time and place for the holding of additional regular meetings without other notice than such resolution.

SECTION 8. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the President or any Director. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board of Directors may fix the place for holding any special meeting of the Board of Directors called by them. Any meeting, regular or special, may be held by conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so as long as all Directors participating in such meeting can hear one another.

SECTION 9. Notice. Regular meetings of the Board may be held without notice. Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least ten (10) calendar days, but not more than sixty (60) calendar days, previously thereto by notice personally given or mailed to each Director at his address of record. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a Director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened, and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting. Notice of meetings not herein dispensed with shall specify the place, day, and hour of the meeting. The purpose of any Board meeting need not be specified in the notice.

SECTION 10. Quorum. The majority of the number of Directors specified in Section 3 of this Article IV of these Bylaws shall constitute a quorum of the Board of Directors. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, despite the withdrawal of some Directors from that meeting, if any action taken or decision made is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for that meeting.

SECTION 11. Manner of Acting. Every action taken or decision made by a majority of the Directors present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be an act of the board, subject to the more stringent provisions of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, including, without limitation, those provisions relating to (a) approval of contracts or transactions in which a Director has a direct or indirect material financial interest, (b) approval of certain transactions between corporations having common directorships, (c) creation of and appointments to committees of the Board, and (d) indemnification of Directors.

SECTION 12. Presumption of Assent. A Director of the Corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as Secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by mail to the Secretary of the Corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a Director who voted in favor of such action.

SECTION 13. Informal Action by Board of Directors. Unless otherwise provided by law, any action required to be taken at a meeting of the Directors, or any other action which may be taken at a meeting of the Directors, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by each Director, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken.

SECTION 14. Compensation. By resolution of the Board of Directors, the Directors may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors or such other reasonable expenses as the Board may from time to time deem appropriate. The reimbursement policy of the Board reflects the policy set in place by the RSC and administered by the Board's executive body. Otherwise, Directors shall serve without compensation.

SECTION 15. Liability of Directors. In accordance with the Articles of Incorporation, and to the maximum extent permissible by the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, the Directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the Corporation.

SECTION 16. Insurance for Corporate Agents. The Board of Directors may adopt a resolution authorizing the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any agent of the Corporation (including a Director, officer, employee, or other agent of the Corporation) against any liability other than for violating provisions of law relating to self-dealing (Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law) asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of Section 5238 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

SECTION 17. Committees. (a). The Board, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors then in office, may create one or more committees, each consisting of one or more Directors and optionally additionally persons who are not Directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Board. Appointments to committees of the Board shall be by majority vote of the Directors then in office. One or more Directors may be appointed as alternate members of any such committee, who may replace any absent member at the meeting. Any such committee, to the extent provided in the Board resolution, shall have all the authority of the Board, except that no committee, regardless of Board resolution, may:

1. Fill vacancies on the Board or on any committee that has the authority of the Board;

2. Fix the compensation of the directors for serving on the Board or on any committee;
3. Amend or restate the Articles of Incorporation, amend or repeal Bylaws, or adopt new Bylaws;
4. Amend or repeal any resolution of the Board;
5. Create any other committees of the Board or appoint members of committees of the Board;
6. Approve any contract or transaction to which the Corporation is a party and in which one or more of its Directors has a material financial interest, except as special approval is provided for in Section 5233(d)(3) of the California Corporations Code; or
7. Approve any action for which the California Nonprofit Corporation Law requires approval of the Board or of a majority of the Board.

(b). An ad hoc committee for each specific purpose may be designated from time to time by the Board. Such committee shall be chaired by a Director. Members of each such committee shall be appointed either from the Directors or the general membership of Narcotics Anonymous, as determined by the Chairperson unless otherwise determined by the Board, in such number as the Chairperson deems advisable, unless specified by the Board when such committee is created.

(c). The Board, by majority vote, may designate two (2) or more of its number to constitute an Executive committee and delegate to such committee any of the powers and authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation except the power to adopt, amend, restate, or repeal the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, and provided that the designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board or any individual Director of any responsibility imposed by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws. By a majority vote, the Board may at any time modify or revoke any or all the authority so delegated, increase or decrease - but not below two (2) - the number of such Executive committee's Directors, and fill vacancies therein from the Directors of the Board. The committee shall establish rules and regulations for its meetings that are not inconsistent with this Article IV of these Bylaws and meet at such times and places as it deems appropriate.

(d). Meetings and actions of committees of the Board shall be governed by, held, and taken in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws concerning meetings and other Board actions, except that the time for regular meetings of such committees and the calling of special meetings of such committees may be determined either by Board resolution or, if there is none, by decision of the chairperson of the committee of the Board. Minutes of each meeting of any committee of the Board shall be kept and shall be filed with the Board or Secretary of the Corporation as the Board may direct. The Board may adopt rules for the governance of any committee, provided such rules are consistent with these Bylaws.

Such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the Board of Directors. An officer need not be a Director of the Corporation. SECTION 2. Election and Term of Office. The officers of the Corporation to be elected by the Board of Directors shall be elected annually by a simple vote of the Board of Directors, immediately following the election of Directors, if any. Each Director shall cast his vote in the time and manner designated by the Secretary, and, for each position, the candidate receiving the most votes shall be certified by the Secretary as having been elected and shall immediately succeed the outgoing Officer. Each Officer shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified or until he shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided. Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by a resolution of the Board of Directors, at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors, whenever, in the judgment of the Board, the best interest of the Corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors or to the President or Secretary of the Corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at any later date specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any removal or resignation of an officer shall not affect his status as a Director, if any, unless he is also removed or resigns pursuant to the provisions of Article IV of these Bylaws.

SECTION 6. Vice President. The Vice President of the Corporation shall, in the absence of the President or in event of his death, unavailability, or refusal to act, perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. (g) If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of his duties in such sum with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any bond required by this Section will be paid for by the Corporation.

SECTION 8. Secretary. The Secretary of the Corporation shall:

(a) Keep the minutes of the Board of Directors and committee meetings in one or more "minute books" provided for the purpose (including the time and place that the meeting was held, whether the meeting was annual, regular, or special, and, if special, how authorized, the notice given, and the names of those present at such Board and committee meetings);

(b) Be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Corporation, if any, and see that any such seal of the Corporation, if any, is affixed to all documents, the execution of which on behalf of the Corporation under its seal is duly authorized;

(c) See that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law;
